"Writing in a journal reminds you of your goals and of your learning in life. It offers a place where you can hold a deliberate, thoughtful conversation with yourself"

Robin Sharma

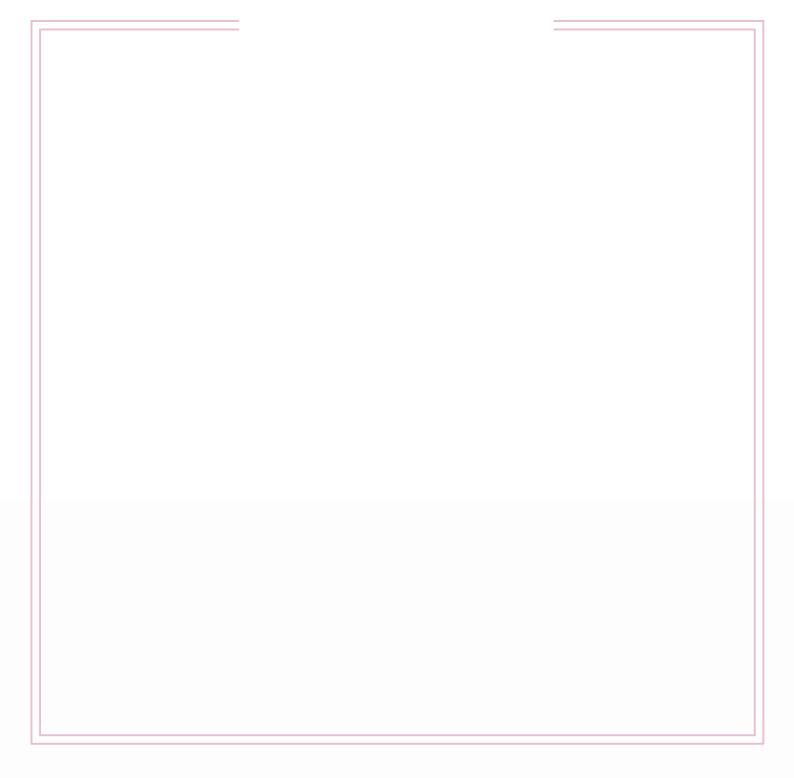

Tell me about the time and place you where born...

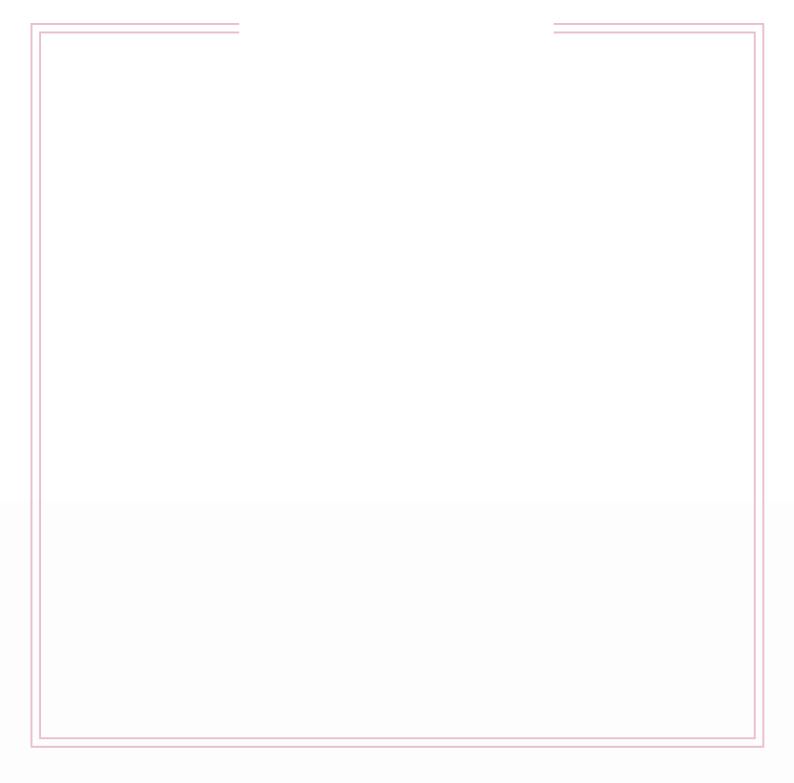

What are your earliest memories?

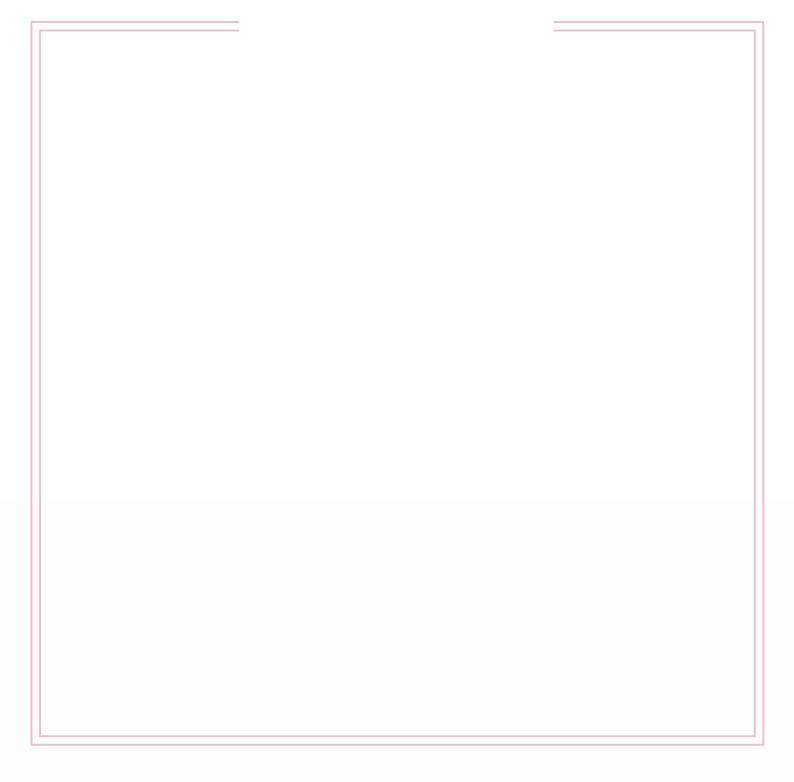

Tell me about your parents and any stories you might have...

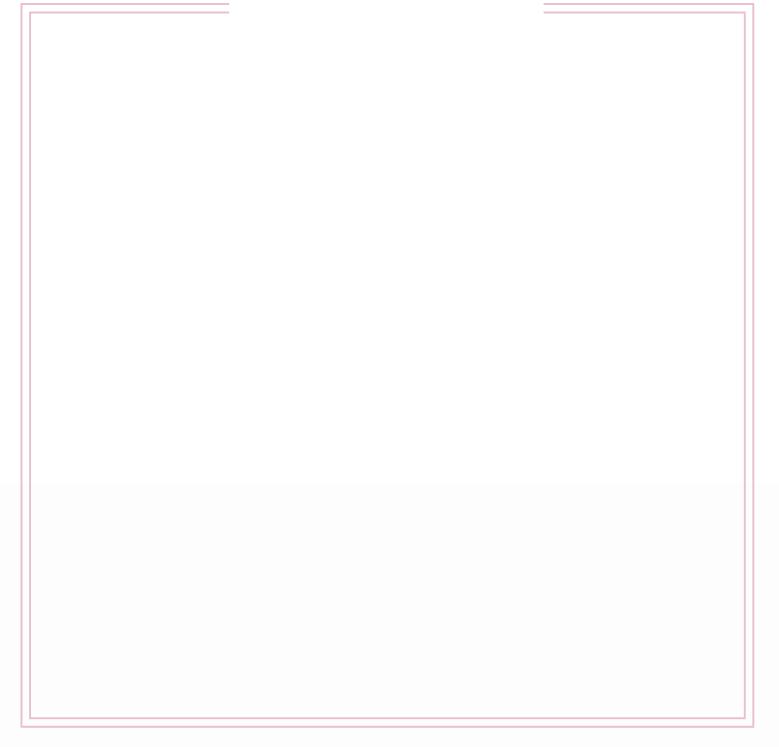

What are your favourite childhood memories?

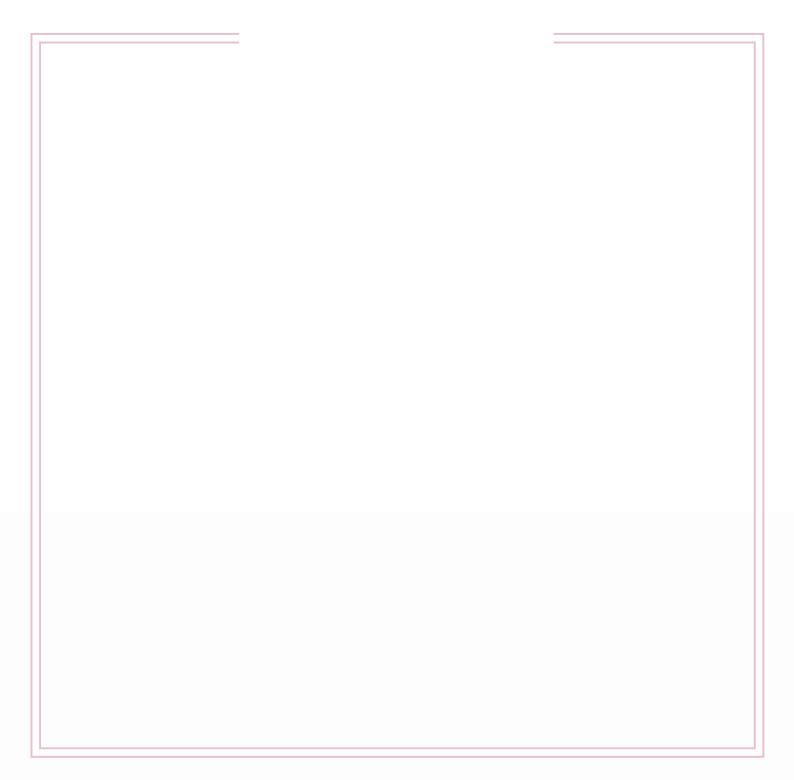

What were your favourite childhood toys or games?

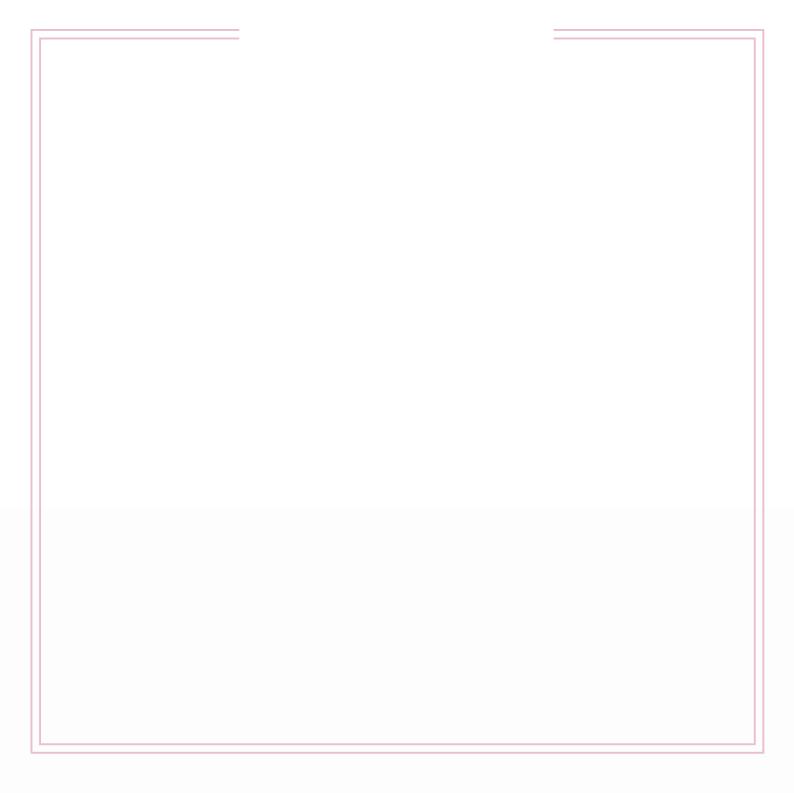

What do you remember about your holidays as a child?

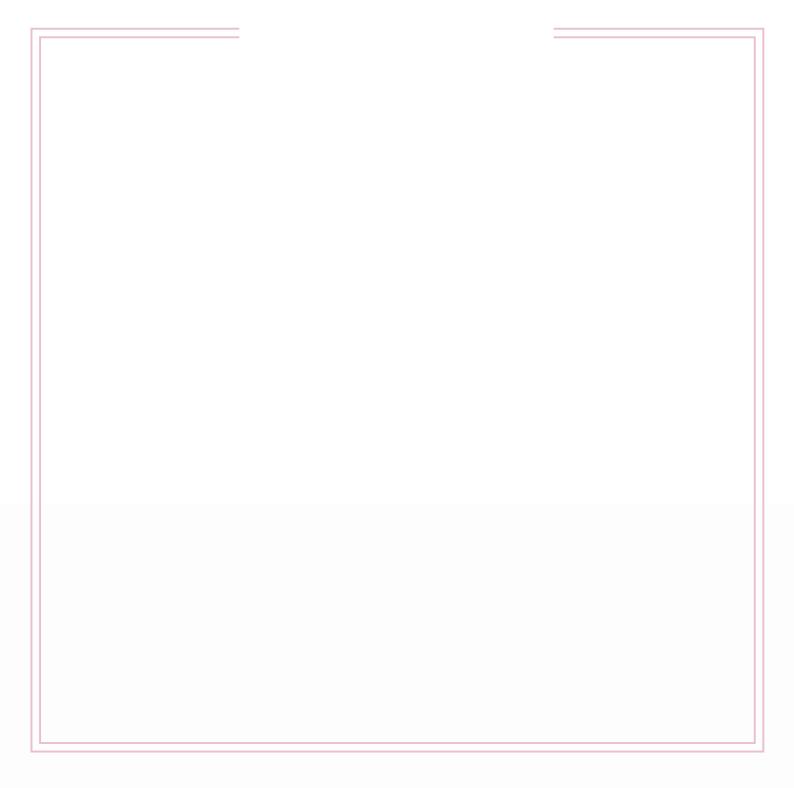

What was school like?

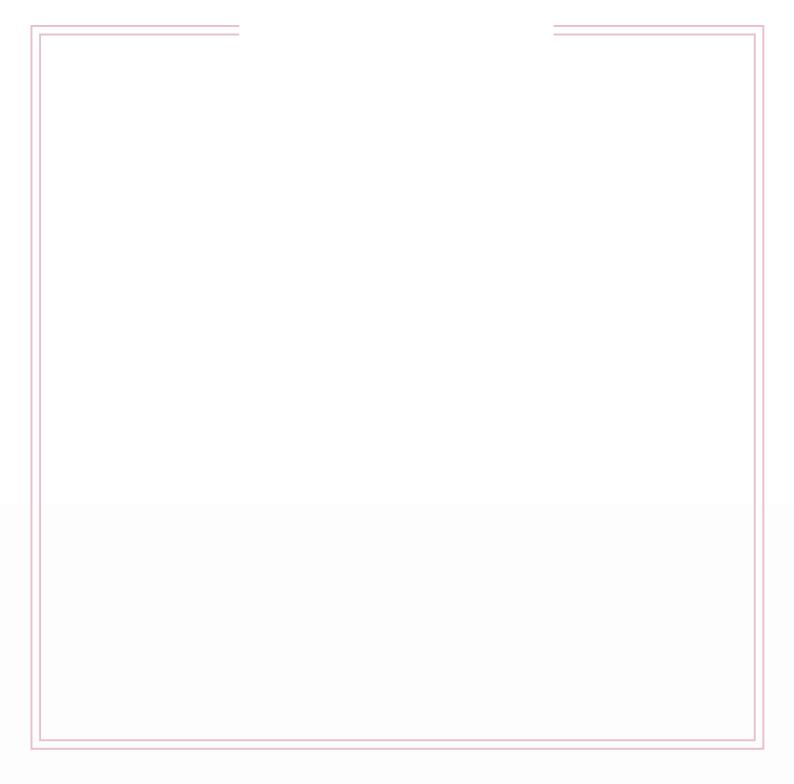

Did you have an idol when you were growing up? Tell me who and why...

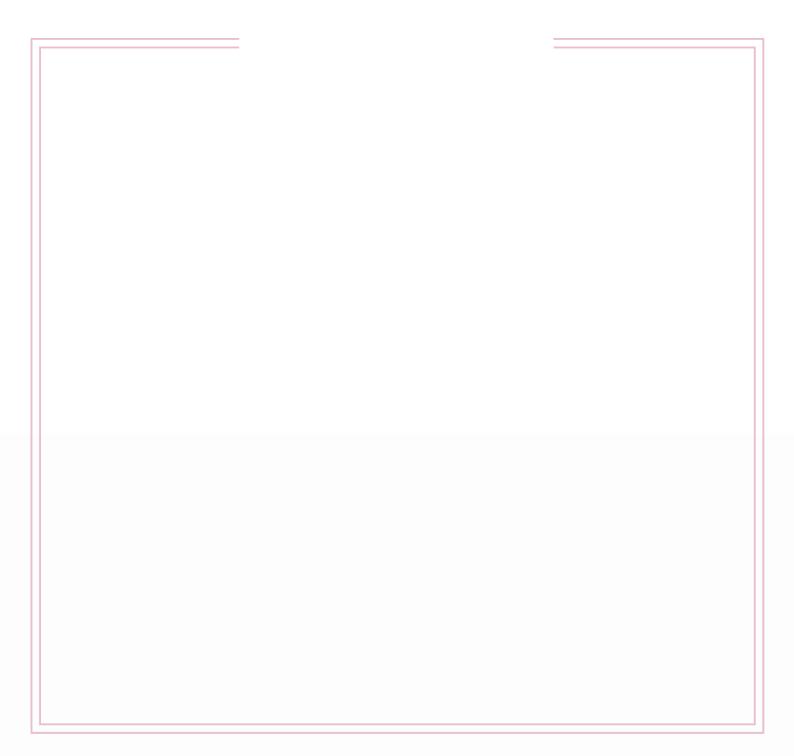

Tell me about the friends you have made throughout your life...

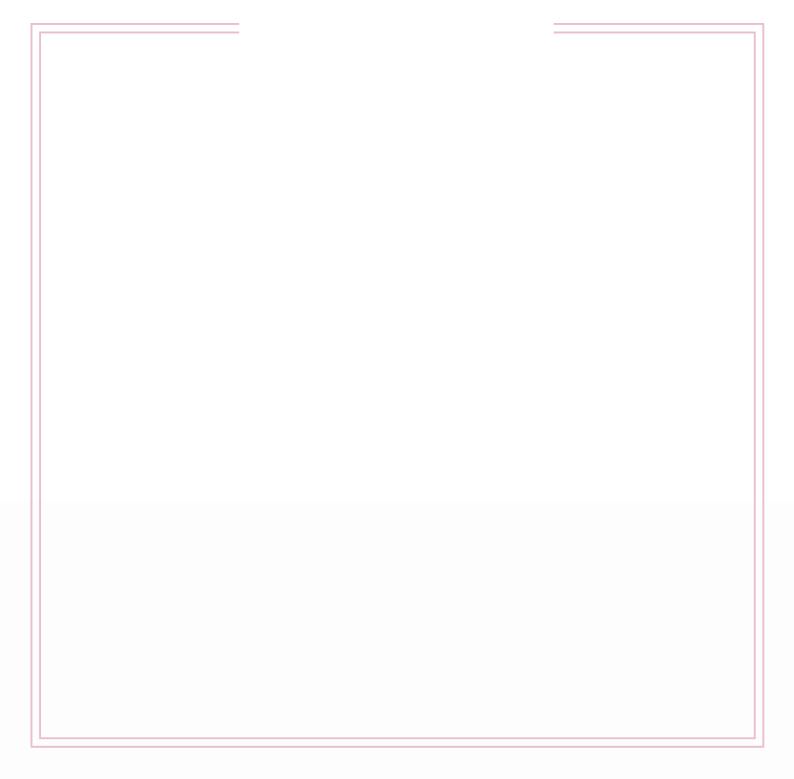

Tell me about the furthest place you have travelled to..

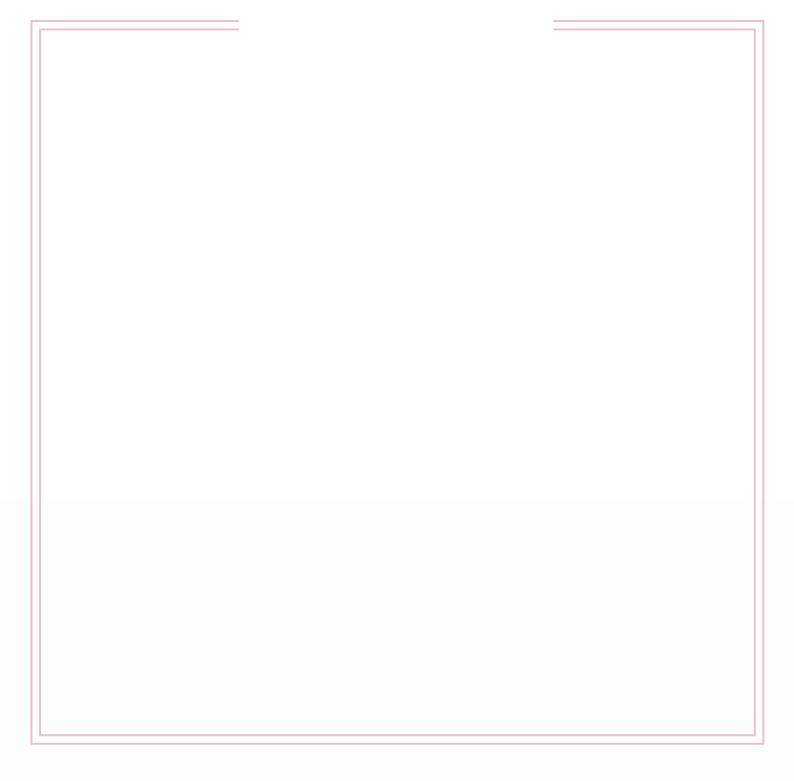

What are the happiest memories of your life?

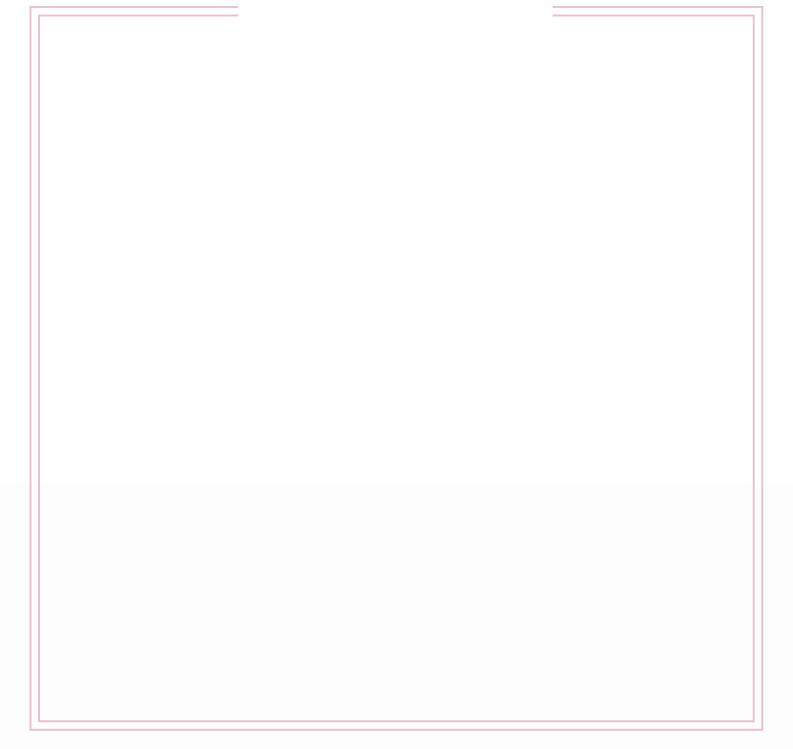

Describe your memory of some major world events?

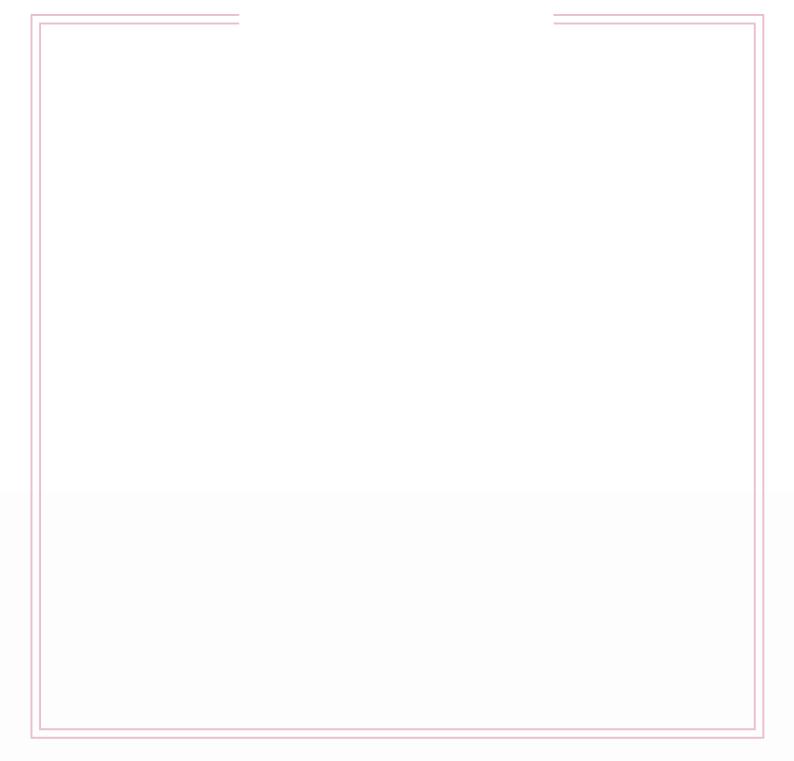

Describe the greatest change you have seen in your lifetime...

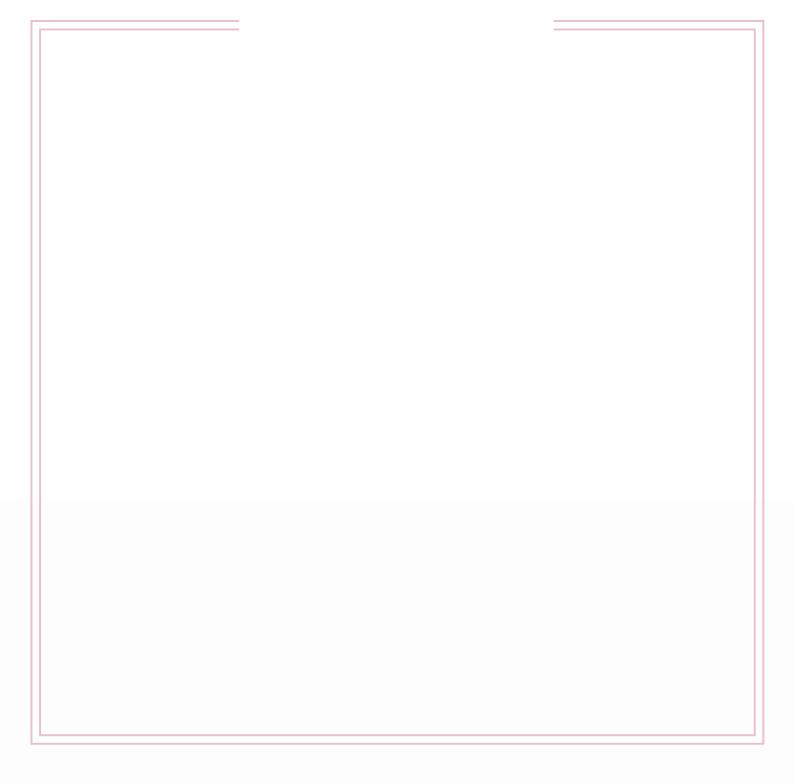

What have you found most difficult in your lifetime?

What are your favourite things to do now?

What advice would you give to children today?

Do you have any photos you would like to share?

The best thing about Memories

...is making them.

Use this space to share photos of your wonderful memories...

"The best things in life are the people you lave,

the places you go

and the memories you make."
